OUTREACH

As always, we have our ongoing collection of non-perishable food and taxable items for local charitable agencies: especially needed are larger-size diapers, socks, personal hygiene items, toilet paper, laundry detergent, soap, shampoo, and body wash. Get in the habit of picking something up whenever you're at the grocery store! It's easy!

Because of the many exciting events and activities going on around the parish this month we won't be having an outreach "field trip" for December, but do be ready to participate in another single-day service project in January!

We are now collecting children's and men's sizes of warm mittens, gloves, hats, and scarves for the Mitten Tree in the parish hall, and playing cards, puzzle books, DVDs, novels, homemade or store-bought snacks, toiletries, blank stationery, and (filled-out!) Christmas cards for Motor Vessel Findlay, the river vessel we sponsor through Seamen's Church Institute. And we are adopting three families through Cancer Patient Services, for whom we'll shop for gifts. Please give generously, and feel free to volunteer if you'd like to help by donating funds or with the shopping, wrapping, or delivering of the presents for the aforementioned families.

If you have questions about any of those service opportunities or if you want to get involved, contact Annie Stricklin, 870-307-9058, stricklina@gmail.com

CSG

You never know when you might meet...

CSG, along with all Trinity, is so looking forward to the renovated kitchen; work is expected to be complete shortly after this issue of Tidings is published. CSG members, The Kitchenettes (so named by Karen Eubanks) along with willing parishioners will help put the kitchen back together in time for Bishop Williams' visit and Confirmations/Reception (December 8). Please join us in this endeavor on Thursday, December 5, 1:00 p.m. On the 8th, a very special coffee hour will be held, inaugurating the new kitchen and celebrating Bishop and Mrs. Williams and those Confirmed and Received.

It's that time of year again: finals at most universities! Please note the sign-up sheet on the Parish Bulletin Board. Sign up your college student noting name, address, and when exams are to begin. The last column on said sheet will be for volunteers to 'adopt' each student, sending a box of snacks to help them get through the ordeal!

Trinity has a new arrival: Jameson Blevins, son of Zachariah and Kristen, brother of Caroline. CSG is planning a baby shower for Jameson in the new year. More information will follow.

Given the Bishop's visit and a baby shower (not to mention intervening coffee hours), the kitchen will be in use. However, to make it "official" a blessing of the kitchen followed by a party will be held in January. Tentative date: Saturday, January 11. Stay tuned.

PRAYER FOR DECEMBER

Lord Jesus, in Advent we look forward to your coming as a baby in a manger, but also to your coming again in glory as judge of all. As we prepare to welcome you, help us to live in the light of your coming and give us a longing for your kingdom. Open our eyes to those around us who are in need, especially children and people in our midst but ignored or unseen. Thank you, Lord, that you see them and love them, and encourage all those who seek to help them. Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.

THE RECTOR WRITES...

Advent is a peculiar season of the church, not only because it places us on a very different time-line from the prevailing culture (which starts celebrating Christmas even before Advent begins), but because we also seem to be a bit mixed up about it within the church. Take the following reflection from the great Episcopal priest, Fleming Rutledge - arguably our church's best preacher - who published a series of her Advent sermons last year under the title Advent: The Once and Future Coming of Jesus Christ:

I have personally been present when new names for the candles of the Four Sundays of Advent have been proposed along the lines of Peace, Joy, Love, and Hope. This presents quite a contrast with the medieval Advent themes of death, judgment, heaven, and hell - in that order!

While many of us have lamented the loss of a fulsome Advent to the ever-encroaching secular celebration of Christmas in the larger culture, perhaps we'd do well to notice the beam in our own eye.

Like Lent, Advent is a penitential season, and perhaps the repentance it calls us to is even greater than those forty days before Easter. It is certainly a more uncomfortable sort of repentance, because while Lent calls us constantly to acknowledge our personal faults, Advent seems to focus more on the degree to which our social order and all of creation is beset by manifold sins. This is because the season places our current world into stark contrast with the Kingdom of God, whose coming we are called to acknowledge over and over again in this season.

This season calls on us to prepare for the coming of the Christ Child but also for the coming of Christ again at the end of time, and it calls us to remember that even that first coming was not a sweet sentiment but an earth-shaking realignment of all creation in preparation for the victory of God over sin and death and the establishment of a new order whose own birth-pangs may be unpleasant but which ultimately results in justice and peace for ever.

This reality is beautifully expressed in the poem "Advent Calendar" by the former Archbishop of Canterbury, Rowan Williams with which I will close this month's missive. I encourage you to meditate on its discomfiting beauty and the Good News its sometimes shocking language both obscures and illuminates:

He will come like last leaf's fall.

One night when the November wind has flayed the trees to bone, and earth
wakes choking on the mould,
the soft shroud's folding.

He will come like frost.

One morning when the shrinking earth
opens on mist, to find itself
arrested in the net
of alien, sword-set beauty.

He will come like dark.

One evening when the bursting red
December sun draws up the sheet and penny-masks its eye to yield the star-snowed fields of sky.

He will come, will come,
will come like crying in the night,
like blood, like breaking,
as the earth writhes to toss him free.

He will come like child.

Yours in service to the Gospel,

John†

ADVENT EVENSONG

As part of our new Second Sunday Series, the first Evensong will take place on Sunday, December 8th. Please join us at 5:00 p.m. for the choral service followed by food and fellowship.

Since the late middle ages "evensong" has been the popular name for vespers (from the Latin vesperis, "evening"), the Evening Office of the western church. Cranmer used it in the 1549 BCP. Although in 1552 he replaced it with "Evening Prayer," the common name remains "evensong." In many Anglican cathedrals and other large churches, especially in England, evensong is sung by clergy and choir as a choral liturgy.

If you have been with us in the past, we encourage you to come again; if you have never attended Evensong, come on December 8th and give it a try - we hope you will find the experience most worthwhile.
